Billing/Payment Policy

Lessons, leasing and board are billed on a monthly basis. Payments should be remitted the FIRST of each month. Failure to pay on time for any two or more months may result in removal from the lesson program. Please remember your riding lesson is like any other appointment - it is being held for you and the lesson fee can not be credited. Make-up lessons are at the discretion of the instructor. We recognize that student and family lives change and so do their scheduling needs. Should you need to change your lesson schedule, please email us and we will do our best to find an alternative placement. Our schedules often run at full capacity, so please understand that you may be placed on a waiting list or need to find another student who can fill/swap in the interim. In the event you need to cancel lessons during the season, you will be billed only for the final month's lessons; credits will not be given for partial months.
